

European Echinodermata Check-List

a draft for the European Register of Marine Species (part of "Species 2000") compiled at TMBL (Tjärnö Marine Biological Laboratory) by:
Hans G. Hansson January 1999 (revised 2 March 1999)

Geographical area covered at ERMS web site: <http://erms.biol.soton.ac.uk/>

Denotations: (TM) = Genotype * = General note

N.B.: This draft list has been made with very limited library resources at hand, using the Echinoderm part of the compilers NEAT lists (available via Internet at address <http://www.tmbi.gu.se/libdb/taxon/taxa.html>) as a starting point. NEAT (North East Atlantic Taxa) are preliminary check-lists, covering Scandinavian marine animal taxa.

The compiler is generally interested in marine fauna, but is not a specialist on any Echinoderm taxon, so there are certainly several omissions and lapses in this draft list.

F.J. Fell's chapter on Echinodermata in "Synopsis and Classification of Living Organisms" (S. Parker (Ed.) 1982, McGraw-Hill) is used as systematic framework. The Asteroids are mainly listed from the recent monograph on Atlantic species by Clark & Downey. Mortensen 1927 is used as a basal source for the other groups. Additions from several other sources have been made, but without access to most reports from the large expeditions (except the Norwegian North Atlantic and the Ingolf) and without access to much of the literature on Echinoderms after WWII, albeit the electronic part of the Zoological Record (covering the last decades) have been useful to some extent.

Authors of most genus and species names in the list below have - with a few exceptions - been found, and most often also the years of description, but with several exceptions. Also, some of the years in this list may be wrong, because different sources often have different opinions regarding which year a certain species is described (e.g. gen. Poliometra Clark ; the original publication: 1923, Neave: 1924, McKenzie in Howson & Picton 1997: 1913; in this case the year from the original publication must be correct).

This list has been revised (2 March 1999). Dr. Sabine Stöhr, echinoderm keeper at the SMNH, Stockholm, kindly helped with some of the question marked description years for 8 ophiuroid names, since the first version. Also, Dr. Claude Massin, Brussels kindly helped in sending a list of several corrected and added years of descriptions of holothurians, as well as a few spelling corrections and some added distribution notes, and not least Dr. Massin added 9 omitted species of this taxon to the list. Dr. Andrey Gebruk, Moscow, together with his friends Alexander Mironov and Alexei Smirnov kindly helped with several corrections and additions to the holothurians, the crinoids, the echinoids and the genus Caulaster among the asteroids.

The list was again revised (25 September 1999) after receiving several other description years for ophiuroid names as well as advise about a few synonymies from Dr. Sabine Stöhr.
